She lives in Douglasville Georgia with her husband of thirty six years after relocating from Elkhart, Indiana where she lived all of her life. At Gods direction she relocated and gave up her job as a Mortgage Broker of sixteen years. She felt Gods call as He began to direct her into writing the stories that He has given her along the journey that she is now on. She is leading a women s group at Cross Roads Church where she is helping them into Emotional Glory at His call. She began to write for the first time as God began to direct her and was able to write four books within a little over a year s time. Understanding that God is in complete control of her life as she allows Him to guide her in her every moment. She is working towards being a conference speaker as she felt God calling her into nine years ago. Being patient to the work that..
