And if Cornelius Agnew could say that, we may well fancy - and you will pardon the jest which holds a truth - that a too exclusive study of the eye may result in mental egotism. If men as old as I are ready to acknowledge this danger, believe me that for the young the pursuit of but one line of practice is only too apt to result in an overestimate of their complete fitness, in hasty papers, mere case reports, wild pursuit of novelties, and the production of numberless minor text-books which can have but a selfish use. Said Romberg once to a friend of mine,...

Reviews

Without doubt, this is actually the best job by any publisher. It is written in basic phrases instead of difficult to understand. You will like the way the author publishes this publication.
