George Curzon has made of the unwisdom of the hasty interpellations of ministers in the House of Commons. It seems that theii presence in the legislative body is not the cure-all for political ills that the president of the Mayflower Society maintains it to be. On the contrary, very unfortunate results may proceed from the attempt to force the hand of the Executive Department, not to speak of the fact that, while it is technically and often actually subordinate to the House in England, in America its co-ordinate authority is assuming, as years go by, a more distinctive character. A Reformer. FOR D. IT is so dark alone! I need your light to help me on my way. My little light! you cry; It scarcely serves to point the path for me. Dear heart, you cannot see What shadows in another s...
