Excerpt: .to bear it--there would be no resource for him, upon his honor, but to cut his throat! What connection can there be, between the place in Lincolnshire, the house in town, the Mercury in powder, and the whereabouts of Jo the outlaw with the broom, who had that distant ray of light upon him when he swept the churchyard-step? What connection can there have been between many people in the innumerable histories of this world, who, from opposite sides of great gulfs, have, nevertheless, been very curiously brought together! Jo sweeps his crossing all day long, unconscious of the link, if any link there be. He sums up his mental condition, when asked a question, by replying that he don t know nothink. He knows that it s hard to keep the mud off the crossing in dirty weather, and harder still to live by...
