He adds: The metallurgic industry is being very hard hit in this respect. I have before me a return showing the number of cases brought before the courts for compensation, and I see that in the metallurgic industry alone no less than 6,318 cases came before the courts of France during the three months ending Dec. 31, 1907. The number of accidents causing death was 264, and in addition to the compensation awarded to those who recovered, life annuities were awarded to 192 widows, and annual allowances, till of age, to no less than 308 children.--Daily Consular and Trade Reports.
