Martin Grainger CEO of a large chemical plant in Philadelphia is ruthless in the control of his business, especially his secret project a sexual enhancing drug for cattle. He is totally convinced he has the future of the cattle industry in his hands and is possessively trying to protect his new drug at whatever cost. Things go badly wrong when a tanker carrying the powder of his secret project, crashes and the powder disperses into the air and settles like a cloud over the sleepy town of Copperville who are preparing for their Annual Carnival. No one was prepared for the life changing effects the powder would cause and that death and misery that would awaken a sleepy town into a nightmare of murder, rape, deceit and utter confusion for the Sheriff Sam Harper and his deputy Bubba. Martin Grainger, in order to try to keep the lid on his secret project sends a hit man to Copperville to deal with it and murder was only one of his options. The story has the recipe for readers of...
