The movement began at daybreak. Nixons brigade had already crossed the creek, and Gen. Glover was upon the point of following him, when, as he entered the water, he saw a British soldier crossing whom he called and examined. The soldier claimed to be a deserter. Glover asked him about Burgoyne's army. The soldier answered It is encamped the same as days past. Glover told him If you are found attempting to deceive me, you shall be hung in half an hour; but if you speak nothing but the truth you shall be protected and meet with good usage. He then asked him Have not numbers been sent off to Fort Edward The deserter replied, A small detachment was sent off a day or two ago, but are returned on finding the passes occupied by the Americans, and the...
