Hindustanis would fear to face, not only the fever, but the savage. A gang of 500 negroes from Kihva or Arabs from Hazramaut taught to use moderate-sized mattocks, not the childs plaything now in fashion, well paid and kept at regular work, would soon, by their own exertions and by example, stimulate the copal digging into liveliness or break up the unnatural monopoly. But the Sayyids government would object to such occupation of its territory; the Wasawahili Diwans would require propitiation; and in view of desertion, it would be necessary to make specific contracts with the chiefs of tribes, villages, and harbours. It is to be feared that such an DEPARTURE FROM SAADANI. 281 operation would not pay, commercially speaking, though every hand might produce, as it has been calculated he can, 12 to 15 lbs. per diem. Willingly, therefore, as I would have...
