

Puff Puff Prose Poetry and a Play (Paperback)

By Joseph William Burrows

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .180 pages of prose poetry and a play; Puff Puff explores a myriad of different struggles. As writers, we cast our dull hand grenades into the muffling dark. Some writers want their voices heard, a legacy, something to be proud of before kidney or liver failure, others are writing under pen names afraid to be heard but predominantly this is a book on struggle. Everything about this book has been a struggle. We are the starving artists that the homeless on the corner have whispered about - eating saltines and tuna - writing poetry in roach infested motel rooms. I m not even exaggerating when I say one of our brilliant editors was homeless for a time reading submissions for this anthology. We are Poetry, Writing, and English graduates. Which is just one step away from a career bartending. We looked for the seldom seen, voices from the gutter like spinning magnets trying to capture the push and pull of struggle - drugs - alcohol - death - sex - the struggles of life to give something more...
