Miss Murray has compiled a collection of war-time recipes and menus; copies of this have been printed on the rmiltigraph and the collection is given to girls going out on parole. Four hundred Christmas candy boxes were made and painted. As we had no girls who understood decorating these. Miss Coventry formed a Saturday morning class which met for several weeks to learn to use water colors; the result was a very creditable array of Red Cross Work Sewing.--The garments have been sent us by the Mt. Kisco Chapter. While our results do not seem large, we have been said to be the most important auxiliary of the branch. The credit for this is due to the efforts of about twelve of the best sewers among the girls who have come to the school on holidays and evenings and have taken work to the cottages, and to a few of the teachers who have helped occasionally. Many of the most difficult garments have been made by assistant matrons assigned to school on days when there was no...
