Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Overland Monthly I made their acquaintance on my way from the Bernese Oberland to the Valais, in a train of the Lotschberg railroad which, since 1913, has become the connecting link between the two great cantons of Berne and Valais. They were an elderly couple, in the quaintest garb I had yet beheld, but their ruddy complexioned, wrinkled faces radiated such happiness, such exaltation as one only finds on the countenance of a youngster who has been presented with some marvelous, unexpected gift. - Wonderful, wonderful the old old lady would rapturously repeat from time to time. I never thought that I would live to experience this, the old man would respond. To think that we ever could have been afraid, they would then both whisper with a smile, and, gradually, I learned that they were homeward bound from the very first excursion they had ever made in their lives by train - and both were over sixty years old! But how can this be possible? I queried in honest amazement, when almost every...
