Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 196 pages. This is an autobiography of my Samoan life and my bittersweet journey from a young Samoan boy to a learned adult. It tells the story of a family that decided to leave the struggles of Samoa in search of a better life in Hawaii, and the challenges and struggles we faced as a family and as individuals. Furthermore, it reveals the importance of culture and religion and its role in raising a young, unsuspecting boy, who was eager for life's lessons. Finally, the actual results of lessons, takes the author full circle, as he makes promises to fulfill his true mission of fulfilling his parents' wishes of finding success in life and raising awareness to the future kindred. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
